

CHECK this out. I know the DRC doesn't want us to touch these, but I bet Watson would like to know how these register with the doors too. It MAKES NO SENSE.

And don't lose it. I could barely get it off the wall and when I did, it was pretty scary. Maybe the weirdest thing is that when I went back later, the cloth I got this piece from was intact again.
